

The whole school joined in the fun of World Book Day at Southwater Junior Academy. Pupils and staff dressed up as their favourite characters and posted for these colourful pictures, which were contributed by the school.

